

STAT

April 8, 1985

STAT

[Redacted]
The Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, DC 20505

Dear Dennis:

I must have written down the wrong telephone number when we talked, because I tried to reach you when I was in Washington on Wednesday, only to learn that I had the wrong number.

I asked Jill to call you to tell you that my participation in your sessions on the 12th and 13th of June is perfectly satisfactory.

We shall be arriving in Washington late in May and shall be there through June and July. Eleanor just loves the city, and I am looking forward to an opportunity for research and writing, particularly with a research assistant who will bring me all kinds of things from the Library of Congress.

Onward and upward.

Cordially yours,

STAT

[Redacted]
Distinguished Professor of History

psf